An Improver is defined as one who knows their way round the Autoharp chords and is a confident strummer, but is not necessarily a confident melody player. The workshops we offer are designed with this distinction in mind. Which workshops will you probably join on the day - note, you can change your mind on the day if you feel you have made the wrong choice!

Would you like a One-to-One session with Mike Fenton during the day? These could last 20-30 minutes this time as Mike is only committed to one session.

Yes, I would like to meet with Mike, to discuss.....

Tick here if you will need to borrow a harp on the day
